Is there anything about you that your future partner would want to know before becoming involved with you?  Yes  No
Expecting to meet a man who is seeking his wife seriously as I want to spend our time together as much as possible ahead.

What are your hopes and plans for the future? My big dream 'in the future' is honestly...Own a small house with the small garden and live there with my future husband and children happily/peacefully and very ordinary. I don't mind if we would live outside of Japan. I want to make a place where we can be relieved/ relaxed always.

What message would you like to send to your future spouse? I'm looking forward to seeing you very much. Let's talk a lot over cups of coffee or drinking. I want to see every moment in the life with you and make us happy and make our life fruitful. I believe we can live together happily and can try any challenges together in our life.
