Do you want children someday?  Yes  No

Do you already have children?  Yes  No

Do you smoke?  Yes  No

How would you describe your personality? I am energetic, self-motivated, straightforward and enthusiastic. My friend and colleague tell me that I am reliable and could adapt to any environments or situations. Beside, I love to work because I like to stay active, learn and experience new things.

What is most important to you? Family is the number one priority in my life, and I hope to have happy family for my own. I also believe respecting, trusting and supporting each other is important.

What countries have you been to? been to 20 countries so far

Is there anything about you that your future partner would want to know before becoming involved with you?  Yes  No --- I've been living in Shenzhen China; which locates next to Hong Kong for almost 14 years (after 9 years in China, went to Tokyo and worked for two years but return to China on 2014) until today. I like to travel around and meet new people and know their cultures. So I'm hoping I could meet a man who likes to adventure outside world as well. And since I've been away from Japan for more than 10 years, so I do not mind returning to Japan or spending rest of my life in other country.

What are your hopes and plans for the future? I want to have a family to share a moment, life event and also be part of them.

What message would you like to send to your future spouse? I'm hoping to find the person who can understand each other and grow together.
