Do you want children someday? Yes No

Do you already have children? Yes No — Two daughters. The elder one is 19, little one is 11. I take care of little one. I hope the one I will be going together would be willing to accept her as his own family member, take us under his wing.

Do you smoke? Yes No

How would you describe your personality?

People say that I am very sophisticated in looks, and broad-minded, guess because of me having been in abroad for quite a long time getting along with various kind of nationality of people. On the other hand, I am very sincere, modest, and a hard worker for those are likely to be oriented from the Japanese national identity. And the other things that I have to say is; I think I am very sexy.

What is most important to you? Keep on going forward with a big hope. People should love each other and share a great time in rest of their life.

What countries have you been to? Japan, China, Korea, Indonesia, Spain, Turkey

Is there anything about you that your future partner would want to know before becoming involved with you? Yes No — Although I broke my heart for love, but I still believe in love. I wish I could share a lot in life with the one we'll be together.

What are your hopes and plans for the future? Create our own beautiful family and life, together with the partner who loves me.

What message would you like to send to your future spouse? I'd like you to be open your heart for me, I'd be so happy to meet you and understand you well.
